Memorial Service and Burial

Lord, our God, in whom we live and move and have our being,

Have mercy on us.

Lord, our God, you do not willingly bring affliction or grief to your children.

Leave your peace with us.

Lord, our God, you have raised Christ from death as the assurance that those who sleep in death will also be raised.

Bless and Comfort us, we humbly pray.

Eternal God, accept us as your children in your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, who came into the world from you, was born a human being, and lived among us. He took the role of a servant, and has redeemed us from all sin and from death, with his holy and precious blood, and with his innocent suffering and dying. Christ has done this so that we may be his own, live in his kingdom, and serve him in eternal righteousness, innocence, and happiness; since he, being risen from the dead, lives and reigns, forever and ever.

Amen.

Our Savior has said: Whoever hears my words and believes the One who sent me has eternal life and will not be judged, but has already passed from death into life,

Savior of the world, lead us in paths of righteousness for your name’s sake.

We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, it is for the Lord that we live; and if we die, it is for the Lord that we die. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord, for Christ died, rose from death, and lives again in order to be Lord of the living and of the dead.

Living Redeemer, we find our hope in you.

As a father has compassion on his children, so God has compassion on those who honor him; for he knows how we were formed, he remembers that we are dust. As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you, says the Lord. The Lord lifts up those who are bowed down, and sustains those who are bereaved. And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.

The steadfast love of the Lord lasts forever, and his goodness endures for all generations.

Glory be to the Father, and to the son and to the Holy Spirit;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.
